January 2022 Rifle/Pistol Selection Matches

COLORADO SPRINGS, CO (Nov. 16, 2021) – USA Shooting announces that a Smallbore Rifle selection match will be held January 4 – 7, 2022 and a Sport Pistol and Rapid Fire Pistol selection match will be held January 8 – 11, 2022 at the Olympic and Paralympic Training Center (OPTC) in Colorado Springs, CO.

These matches will be a direct selection match to select the athletes that will attend the Cairo World Cup in February 2022. The top three finishers in each discipline at this match will be selected to attend the Cairo World Cup if their average score from the 3 qualification match days meets or exceeds the PSS average outlined in selection procedures. Additionally, all qualification scores from this match will contribute to the PSS averages for national team selection.

Competitors in the rifle match will shoot 3x20 courses of fire for the match, as this is the anticipated match format for the rest of the quad according to the ISSF.

The schedules for the matches are outlined below. Match programs, detailed match schedules, and selection procedures will follow.
